

Bushnell Family Fete Set

For 60th Anniversary

Fri Oct 12/1979

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel D. Bushnell

Bushnell are celebrating their 60th wedding anniversary at R. Spencer Hines this Saturday with their four sons and their wives: J. Merrill Bushnell, Provo; Dan S. Bushnell, Salt Lake City; J. Fred Bushnell, Laguna Beach, Calif.; and T. Darrell Bushnell, Woodland Hills, Utah County. They have 13 grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren. The couple were married Oct. 1, 1919 in the Salt Lake LDS Temple.

A family party of 36 was held recently in Kiwanis Park to honor Mrs. Bushnell on her 81st birthday and to celebrate the anniversary with the grandchildren.

Mrs. Melba Bushnell was born in Meadow on Sept. 2, 1898. She attended BYU and University of Utah and taught school before her marriage. The couple have held many positions in the LDS Church and have traveled extensively including a trip around the world in 1960.

MR. AND MRS. DANIEL BUSHNELL

PROVO — Daniel Dearden Bushnell, 87, a prominent Provo Real Estate agent, died Oct. 1, 1980.

Mr. Bushnell was founder and owner of Bushnell Real Estate. He had been president of the Utah State Association of Realtors and a member of the National Association of Realtors. He had also been a member of the Provo Insurance Association and a member of the Utah County Board of Real Estate.

Mr. Bushnell had also been a member of the Provo Insurance Association and a member of the Utah County Board of Real Estate. He had also been a school teacher and a farmer.

Mr. Bushnell served as a bishop twice, a high counselor twice, a member of two stake presidencies, as a missionary and as patriarch of the Brigham Young University Second and Sixth Stakes in the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. He was in the stake presidency of the original First BYU Stake.

Born Dec. 18, 1892, in Meadow, Millard County, to Daniel B. and Susan Dearden Bushnell, he married Melba Ellen Stott on Oct. 1, 1919, in the Salt Lake Temple.

Provo realtor dies at 87

Daniel D. Bushnell

Survivors include his wife; four sons, J. Merrill, Provo; Dan S., Salt Lake City; J. Fred, Laguna Beach, Calif.; and T. Darrell, Woodland Hills, Utah County; 13 grandchildren; a sister, the BVP, and a brother, Mrs. Blake (Alice B.) Stephenson, Provo, and Everett, Tooele.

Funeral will be at 12:30 p.m. Saturday in the Provo 13th Ward chapel, 945 E. Seventh North.

Friends may call at 185 E. Center, from 6 to 8 p.m. Friday or at the ward chapel Saturday before services. Burial will be in Provo City Cemetery.

Melba Ellen Stott Bushnell

PROVO—Melba Ellen Stott Bushnell, age 88, died January 15, 1987 at the Utah Valley Regional Medical Center of heart failure. Born September 2, 1898 in Meadow, Utah to Joseph Stott and Sarah Ellen Bennett Stott. Married Daniel D. Bushnell October 1, 1919 in the Salt Lake LDS Temple. He died October 1, 1980. Mrs. Bushnell received her education in the Millard County and attended BYU and schools. She attended school the U of U. Melba taught school in Millard County. Following her marriage, she and her husband moved their first home in Meadow, Utah. Later they moved to Cedar City and Salt Lake City. In 1942, they made their home in Provo where she has resided since. Melba was on active membership of the LDS Church, having held positions in the Primory as chorister, teacher, counselor as chorister, teacher, counselor as secretary, counselor, leader to the choir, and Beehive girls and as president of the YWVLA. In Relief Society, she has been and was currently serving as a visiting teacher. She had been the chorister, secretary and theology teacher in two stakes and a Sunday School teacher in the Provo 13th Ward. She was also a member of the Alice Louise Reynolds Literary Club, the Acadia Club, and was captain of the BVP. She was sought after often to give reviews or to speak in various women's clubs and church organizations. Survivors: four sons, Joseph Merrill Bushnell, serving as president of Dollis, Texas LDS Mission; Daniel S. Bushnell, Salt Lake City; Dr. J. Fred Bushnell, Laguna Beach, Calif.; T. Darrell Bushnell, Provo; 13 grandchildren; 24 great-grandchildren; two brothers, Leo Stott, and Cleon Stott. Funeral services will be on Monday, January 19, 1987, 12:30 p.m. at the Provo 13th Ward LDS Chapel, 945 East 700 North, Provo. Friends may call at the Berg Mortuary of Provo, 185 East Center, on Sunday evening, 6-8 p.m. or at the Ward Chapel Monday one hour prior to services. Interment, Provo City Cemetery. T 1/18 NS 1/18